By Gateway Capital LLC

Dated: Apr 11, 2008

Gateway International Trading Partners LLC, a subsidiary of Gateway Capital LLC, proudly announces the hiring of their new CEO, Mr. Randy Avon.

Mr. Randy Avon, former CEO of the Fort Lauderdale World Trade Center and Asian Pacific Development Corp. has been named as the CEO for global operations for Gateway International Trading Partners LLC (Gateway ITP LLC). The company is based in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Gateway Capital LLC.

Gateway Capital CEO, Mitchell Hammer, announced that “Mr. Avon will have full responsibility to further develop and expand our global businesses worldwide through our partnership model.” Immediate corporate plans include expansion of operations into Brazil, Argentina, Hong Kong, Korea, Dubai, Panama, and People’s Republic of China. A series of joint venture partnerships are being formalized in these countries and others for the import and export of cement, sugar, urea, steel, soy beans, rebar, petroleum products, and other commodities.

Gateway Capital’s cement subsidiary, International Cement Group LLC is a worldwide reseller of Portland cement and projects distribution in excess of 100,000,000 metric tons during the next 12 months. Mr. Hammer also announced that Gateway ITP LLC is negotiating plans for public/private joint ventures to build new warehouse storage and distribution centers at existing ports in Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as Africa and the Middle East.
